INTERNATIONAL AFTERNOON TEA WEEK

"There are few hours in life more agreeable than the hour dedicated to the ceremony known as afternoon tea." – Henry James

Afternoon tea is a many-splendoured activity which has risen in popularity around the world, with various concepts from the traditional scones and clotted cream to the modern Asian-influenced delights offered with a pot of tea, or even a glass of champagne.

Afternoon Tea Week, held this year from 12 to 18 August, is a celebration of the British tradition of Afternoon Tea, and if you, like us, love your tea, turn overleaf to find out more about the afternoon tea to look forward to, namely A Majestic Afternoon Tea at The Majestic Hotel Kuala Lumpur, the Bollinger Rosé Champagne Afternoon Tea at The Ritz-Carlton, Kuala Lumpur or Bao-Tea-Ful, a new afternoon tea story at Hotel Stripes Kuala Lumpur.

What is not to love about a week-long celebration of dainty finger sandwiches, decadent desserts and cups of tea amidst great conversation?

The Concierge Recommends is published with the purpose of sharing the happenings in and around town for the current month of publication. It is divided into three main categories: Events (major events, conferences and exhibitions); Arts & Entertainment (concerts, theatre, plays and shows) and Places (places of interests and historical sites).

We hope this newsletter will give you an insight of what to do or where to go whilst in our beautiful city of Kuala Lumpur.

If you require further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact the Concierge at the Lobby.

Enjoy the read.

Northern Irish band, Snow Patrol will be making their Malaysian debut for a one-night show at KL LIVE on 29 August to celebrate the release of their latest album, "Wildness".

Art lovers, you will get a chance to view the 17 remaining paintings of the great Leonardo da Vinci, all under one roof, at the Leonardo da Vinci: Opera Omnia exhibition that is on-going till 15 August at the National Art Gallery.
